

TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY OF FIJI

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR CORPORATE ADVISER

The Telecommunications Authority of Fiji ('TAF') is established under the Telecommunications Act of 2008 (previously the Telecommunications Promulgation of 2008) to regulate the telecommunications industry in Fiji.

The TAF's functions are: (a) to implement the telecommunications policy in accordance with its powers under the Act (b) to assist through mediation the resolution of disputes between licensees or between licensees and consumers (c) to manage State assets through allocating, assigning and supervising the use of radio spectrum and frequencies (d) to manage State assets through allocation, assigning and supervising the use of numbering (e) to promote investor confidence relating to telecommunications (f) to protect consumer interests and promote consumer awareness relating to telecommunications (g) to represent the Government in regional and international organizations and obligations, when the Minister has officially delegated such tasks to TAF, and (h) to perform any other functions assigned to it by this Act or any other written law.

Expression of Interest ('EOI') are invited from suitably qualified firms and individuals for a short-term engagement as Corporate Adviser to assist with the development of a five-year Strategic Plan for TAF. The engagement will cover the following tasks:

- (a) Development of steps from planning and preparation to the adoption of a suitable plan.
- (b) Determining the resources that are required for the exercise.
- (c) Organising a 2-day workshop and documenting its outcomes.
- (d) Drafting a 'Strategic Plan' for formal adoption by the TAF Board.

EOI by interested firms and individuals are to include the following:

1. Background of principals to be involved in the engagement.
2. Summary of similar engagements undertaken within the past 3 years.
3. Preferred planning model with timelines.
4. Fees and expenses.
5. Availability to commence the exercise at the earliest opportunity.

EOI will close at 4.30pm on Thursday the 28th of March 2024, and is to be addressed to:
